A One-Day Year-End Retreat

December 4, 2010

Dear Friend,

Believe it or not but 2010 is about to end and if you haven't had a chance yet this year to join us for a Nouwen retreat, here is your last chance. The theme revolves around the idea of spiritual polarities and how Nouwen exemplified the process of navigating our way through the inherent tension between our true self and our false self which is our focal study. Invite others to join in and spend the day at the beautiful Immaculate Heart Retreat House in Los Angeles. Let this be a good year-end retreat for you!

Your companion on the journey,

WIL (on behalf of The Nouwen Legacy Associates)

Retreat Guide: Wil Hernandez, Ph.D.

Wil regularly teaches courses on the spirituality of Henri Nouwen at Fuller Theological Seminary, Azusa Pacific University, and Loyola Marymount University. He is the author of two books on Nouwen both published by Paulist Press (Henri Nouwen: A Spirituality of Imperfection and Henri Nouwen and Soul Care: A Ministry of Integration).

Immaculate Heart Retreat Center 3431 Waverly Drive, Los Angeles, CA 90027

The residence of the Sisters of the Immaculate Heart of Mary was built in 1927 in the style of a medieval renaissance castle. The basic Norman-French and Spanish structure also exhibits Greco-Roman and Moorish influences. The interior of the Nordic entrance tower was furnished as a replica of the prayer room of the Holy Father at the Vatican in Rome.
